

Tigrane

Context

On April 1st, 2022, Django Reinhardt middle school's 4e7 form went to La Maison de Comoni to see a play called Tigrane.

Who are the characters?

The main character is Tigrane who isn't good at school. He's 17 years old. He's great at drawing and poetry. His teacher sees him like a normal pupil. His father is an alcoholic and does everything to discourage his son. He's a pinball addict.

What is the story about?

It's the story of Tigrane who is encouraged by his teacher, whom he loves, to find his way in the arts. His father, his education and the absence of his mother make him fail. Will he succeed?

Where does it take place?

This play takes place in a classroom, at Tigrane's place and in town.

Did you like this play? Why?

We absolutely enjoyed this play. It was an incredible experience. This story was interesting and not long. There wasn't any boring moments. The actors were all good.
